

Title: Techno Club Vol.54

Artist: MIXED BY TALLA 2XLC & NEELIX

A legend returns! In 1985, under the name Moskwa TV, the pioneer of electronic music TALLA 2XLC released some of their first works at ZYX Music.

Anyone who has already dealt with the history of techno and electronic dance music in general, must know the name TALLA 2XLC.

The co-founder of „Techno Club“, the world’s first „Club in Club“ event series, which has been held since 1984 in the famous Frankfurt airport discotheque DORIAN GRAY, is now releasing his popular, homonymous compilation series in cooperation with ZYX Music.

Regularly gathering the entire who’s who of the techno & trance DJ scene, the Techno Club series already exists since 1997.

For the 54th edition of his compilation series, TALLA chose a top-class partner, no less person than the current psy-trance shooting star NEELIX!

The congenial NEELIX from Hamburg has made a massive career jump in recent years and certainly contributed to the fact that PSY & PROGRESSIVE TRANCE is currently the hippest club sound on our planet.

The current issue of the Techno Club Compilation includes cutting edge in-house productions by the two main protagonists NEELIX & TALLA as well as the recent tracks by trendsetters like Paul van Dyk, Aly & Fila, Dash Berlin, Darren Porter, John O’Callaghan, RAM & Daniel Skyver, Mark Sherry and many more!

Techno Club Vol. 54 - The Techno / Trance Highlight of the summer!

Title: Love StoneArtist: JD ALLEN

Tenor saxophonist JD Allen's output on Savant Records has been steady since his 2012 album The Matador and the Bull, and this beautiful and intensely interesting ballads album is an assured milestone in his career to date. There are patented JD-isms: that almost operatic-like swoon and smear of tone; deconstructed themes full of non-linearity and melodic asides arriving unforeseen. As in all of Allen's recordings, there is also a spare Chopin-like quality, with a shadowy, crepuscular character to much of the material. An album made up entirely of ballads requires a first-rate harmonic foundation and guitarist Liberty Ellman once again proves himself to be the most sensitive of accompanists, alternating between full harmonic richness and skittering, almost pointillistic lines which merely hint at the harmonies. The depth of Allen's timbre and phrasing is such that the absence of a keyboard is not really felt, and his quartet proves again that it is one of the most highly accomplished small groups in contemporary jazz.

JD Allen – tenor saxophone
Liberty Ellman – guitar
Gregg August – bass
Rudy Royston – drums

Title: Armor of Pride
Artist: BLACK ART JAZZ COLLECTIVE

The Black Art Jazz Collective's mission statement celebrates African-American cultural and political icons. At the core is a modernism that conjures up the classic bands of Art Blakey and acoustic Miles Davis. But with the contemporary soul-fuelled solos and locked-in rhythm the band is more likely to launch into a counterpoint riff or the spacious funk of hip-hop than the svelte lines of a classic walking bass. The Black Art Jazz Collective delivers strong original tunes and purposeful, form-hugging improvisation that keeps things looking forward rather than back. And with trumpeter Jeremy Pelt on ebullient form, and saxophonist Wayne Escoffery's muscularity contrasting with the tenderness of James Burton III's trombone, the focus never becomes diffuse or wavers.

Black Art Jazz Collective:

Wayne Escoffery – tenor saxophone

Jeremy Pelt – trumpet

James Burton III – trombone

Xavier Davis – piano

Vicente Archer – bass

Johnathan Blake – drums

Title: Tribute To PrinceArtist: ICE-T / HEAVEN 17 / DEAD OR ALIVE / GARY NUMAN UVM.

When singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Prince suddenly died in April 2016, the world stood still for a moment.

„Today we lost a creative icon. Few artists have influenced the sound and trajectory of popular music more distinctly, or touched quite so many people with their talent. As one of the most gifted and prolific musicians of our time, Prince did it all. Funk. R&B. Rock and roll. He was a virtuoso instrumentalist, a brilliant bandleader, and an electrifying performer“, said US President Barack Obama.

When he left this world, we lost a musical visionary. Well-known artists such as Heaven 17, Dead Or Alive, Gary Numan and many more now pay tribute to him and his legacy in their very own way.

„Tribute To Prince“ is a tribute album of a special kind.
