Title: Remember LoveArtist: HOUSTON PERSON & RON CARTER

Over twenty-five years ago, this duo began their first collaboration with an album entitled Something In Common. Six releases later they remain committed to the format, but with time on their side they have become empathetic and open-minded colleagues. In this session of standards, the tunes have been culled from the American Songbook with the intention of providing unabashed look at life, love, youth and beauty. Person's tenor tone is smooth, warm and easygoing, and the duo format brings out his romantic side. Carter, meanwhile, is in complete charge of the music's harmony and rhythm, well aware of the manifold accompaniment possibilities each tune presents, and able to move seamlessly between an astounding number of those possibilities. So if you want to hear two masters at work, playing off and for each other, this is the place to be.

Title: Song for Nat
Artist: CHARLIE SEPÚLVEDA

Puerto Rican trumpeter Charlie Sepúlveda has been a fixture of the Latin jazz world since the late 1980s when he played in the band of pianist and composer Eddie Palmieri. During the 1990s, a renaissance period for el jazz Latino, the brassman toured and recorded with an array of great artists including Tito Puente and the Golden Latin Jazz All Stars, Dizzy Gillespie and the United Nation Orchestra, Wynton Marsalis, Hilton Ruiz, Steve Turre, Dave Valentin, Danilo Pérez, and Paul Simon among others. He launched his own group, The Turnaround, 25 years ago, and has been turning the tables on the traditional Latin jazz format ever since.

Title: Tosca, Madame Butterfly, Turandot
 Artist: GIACOMO PUCCINI

Enjoy classical music - the most beautiful Italian operas!

Listening to a sophisticated opera while enjoying a tasty glass of wine seems like the perfect match for a nice evening, doesn't it ?!

Not at least because of the importance of wine and Italian operas for the cultural history of Italy, these two components belong together, like the aria to the recitative.

This box brings them both you !

Content:

- 2 bottles of high-quality red wine from Italy
- complete recordings from operas by Giacomo Puccini like Tosca, Madame Butterfly and Turandot!

No return rights.
